The West Region's gathering heard a powerful presentation about Human Trafficking in our area. We talked about ways in which we might respond. Some possibilities shared by Micki Robinson are:

- 1) forming a speakers bureau that would go into schools
- 2) hosting events that would provide practical information
- 3) sharing information through Presbyterian Women
- 4) funding through churches in the west region for Bridging Freedom as it builds a facility for women trying to escape
- 5) bringing this issue to the attention of community leaders using the connection we, as individuals, have ... for example, with Rotary or Kiwanis
- 6) providing awareness education within our congregations.
