

Our Mission:

To identify and strengthen leaders so that every congregation makes new and mature disciples for Jesus Christ.

Last Call: Comm Workshop

As your Director of Communications, this is a topic near and dear to my heart, so I thought I'd give it one last shout out: the deadline to sign up for the Church Communications Workshop is noon tomorrow. There are still around 15 spaces open, so if you're interested, please RSVP now!

This is the perfect opportunity to learn best practices for getting the word out about your church on social media, websites, and print. More details, including how to sign up, below:

Hosted by the Presbytery and the Presbyterian Mission Agency. Create excitement and energy in your congregation by using simple, but powerful communications tools. What do you want your community to know about your church? Are you looking for ways to share God's love through social media? Does your church have a well-thought-out communications plan-for both internal and external audiences? You don't have to have a huge budget or a large staff to effectively tell the story of your work inside and outside the church walls.

The workshop will be held at Westminster Shores in St. Pete on Wednesday September 28 from 9am to 3pm. Breakfast and lunch will be provided by the great folks at Westminster Shores at no additional cost.

To Register, please email the Presbytery Office with the names of those from your church who plan to come. There will be a $20 registration fee, per person, preferably collected in advance (checks made out to the Presbytery of Tampa Bay and mailed to the office).

Due to space limitations, event sign up will be limited to just 50 people, so please reserve your spot soon. Deadline to RSVP is NOON Friday September 23rd.

As usual, please check out the other news and resources below, and if you have a joy, concern, resource or just something you want to share, please let me know!

In Christ,

Rev. Dave Baker,
Stated Clerk and Director of Communications
Presbytery of Tampa Bay

CAMP & CONFERENCE CENTER

Cedarkirk invites you to the annual Senior Adult Retreat on Wednesday, October 12, 2016. Enjoy an engaging workshop session, a delicious home-cooked meal, and wear comfortable clothes and shoes since there will be free time available for games, rocking on the porch, or strolling around camp. Cost is $20 per person. Individual and groups are invited to this special day. Please contact the camp office at 813-685-4224, ext. 2 for more details.

Important Info from the Commission on Ministry

At its most recent meeting, the Commission on Ministry (COM) approved a motion to adopt a minimum effective salary of $43,083. This means that churches who pay the minimum salary will need to take this change into account for any upcoming budgetary planning. Note: Congregations that would have difficulty meeting the minimum can contact the Commission on Ministry to request a waiver.

Additionally, the COM is recommending that congregations provide at least a 1% increase to church staff salaries for 2017. This is a recommendation, not a requirement.

BOARD CONNECTIONS

Remember to submit an Employer Agreement on Benefits Connect by September 30, 2016, so that your employees will be able to make 2017 benefit elections.

Employer Decision Support allows employers to model costs and select the 2017 benefits available to employees. By submitting your selections on Benefits Connect by September 30, you will create an Employer

Agreement, detailing benefits you will offer to your employees during annual enrollment (October 17 - November 11).

Board of Pensions Call to Health

With each day we're reminded of the need to protect and cherish our personal health and the health of our families, loved ones, and broader community of faith. The Board of Pensions' Call to Health is one small way all plan members can honor this gift and demonstrate our individual commitment to nurture God's gift of life.

Over the past two years, the Presbytery of Tampa Bay's participation in the Call to Health has declined. Specifically, last year, 37.3% of plan members in the Tampa Bay Presbytery completed Call to Health, compared to the 38.5% completed in 2014.

As the 2016 Call to Health is approaching the September 30 end date, we encourage all members the Presbytery to actively answer the Call to Health to achieve their best health and save on their 2017 medical plan deductibles. I do this every year, and it has saved my family a lot of money in reduced deductibles.

For more information, please visit www.calltohealth.org or visit www.pensions.org.

$10,000 Grant for New Initiatives

The Developmental, Risky, Experimental, Adaptive Mission (DREAM) Grant is being offered by the Presbyterian Mission Agency in order to encourage dreamers, risk-takers, pioneers and trailblazers.

This grant is designed to encourage the birth of new ventures through congregations and presbyteries rather than to support the expansion of existing programs within congregations. It's also a grant whose funding is running out. This is one of your last chances to qualify for this grant!

For the purpose of this grant, new is defined as an initiative that was created no earlier than January 1, 2014. This grant is not intended for new worshipping communities or new church developments.

Please note that the deadline to get this grant to the Presbytery is October 15th. If you are interested in applying, please download the application and return it completed to the Presbytery Office.

Look Out for the Outlook

Mike Loudon reports that in the most recent Presbyterian Outlook, there's a great article about former United States Senator Kay Hagan of North Carolina reflecting on her Presbyterian roots and her faith and how that faith has guided her throughout life. She grew up at FPC Lakeland and talks about how her church strongly influenced her. Imagine what the children in your church may one day do, and share this article with them when it comes out!

World Communion of Reformed Churches

2017 General Council Stewards Program

The member communions of the World Communion of Reformed Churches (WCRC) will gather for its General Council in Leipzig Germany June 29 to July 7. The Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) is a member of the WCRC and as such we have been invited to participate in the General Council in various ways. Our own General Assembly has approved a slate of delegates to attend on our behalf to participate in the business of the General Council. However, there are other opportunities for Presbyterian young adults to participate.

The WCRC is seeking 35 from the global membership of the WCRC, including the PC(USA). Applications are now invited for the Stewards Program.

The work of the stewards is essential to the General Council. Without stewards making sure that rooms are set up, papers are distributed, mail is delivered, people are counted, etc., there would be no General Council at all! Therefore, being a steward means first of all a lot of hard work. Often this work is exhausting, intense and done under the pressure of time.

To learn more please visit this link.

Contact Melissa Davis at the Office of Ecumenical Relations with questions and/or requests for PC(USA) endorsement:
Melissa.davis@pcusa.org or 502-569-5037.

Another way to Participate:

Global Institute of Theology (GIT): The next GIT will be held in Wuppertal and Leipzig, Germany, from June 9 to July 7, 2017, living together and learning as a global community in the context of the 2017 General Council of the World Communion of Reformed Churches.

The 2017 GIT will offer a unique opportunity for a community of students from around the world to live together, learn and do theology in a fully inter-contextual and ecumenical way, connecting theology from the local to the regional and world levels. To learn more visit: <http://wcrc.ch/git>

Eugene Carson Blake Scholarship

The Eugene Carson Blake Fellowship program annually selects an outstanding individual who shows promise for church leadership to attend the Ecumenical Institute at Bossey, Switzerland.

Students will receive a holistic education - which combines academic research, cross-cultural learning through life in community, spiritual experience, exposure to and encounter with other faith communities. This formation prepares students to face the challenges of living in an increasingly pluralistic society, in a world of economic and cultural globalization, climate change, neglect of human rights and attempts to justify growing violence in the name of religion.

Each year the Institute welcomes a group of no more than 40 students from around the world and from many different Christian traditions. Consider applying for the September 2017 to January 2018 academic year.

Presbyterians can seek their denomination's nomination for the Scholarship by following the instructions set forth in the nomination procedure.

For more information please download this flyer.

Applications are due to the office of Ecumenical Relations by November 30.

Adult Disciples with Special Needs Seminar

Adult Disciples with Special Needs

a half-day seminar for church leaders and volunteers about ministry with adults with special needs

- Presented by Bright Threads Ministries -

Saturday, October 15th

9:00 AM - 12:00 PM

✓ REGISTER TODAY!

Seminar Leaders:

Dr. Evelyn McMullen, Director of Bright Threads Ministries

Rev. Bill Fisackerly, St. James United Methodist Church, Tampa
Rev. Meg Pabst, Palma Ceia Presbyterian Church, Tampa
Abigail Roe, Graduate student, Southeastern University

Dear Pastors and Volunteers,

You may know adults like "Robert." Robert loves Jesus. Robert enjoys worshipping with his family and can tell you about people in the Bible. He likes to help others. Robert is part of a small congregation which includes him and expects him to grow as an adult disciple of Jesus.

There are many adults with special needs who are not as fortunate as Robert. They are invisible in their congregations. Or they live on the margins of our communities, invisible to all of us. Jesus reached out to people on the margins. In Luke 14, Jesus called them in "that My House may be filled."

Bright Threads Ministries can equip your congregation to include adults with special needs in the life of your church. YOU DON'T HAVE TO START A NEW PROGRAM!!

Our seminar on October 15 will show you how to strengthen existing ministries of worship, learning, and service, leading to more inclusive congregational life.

Location: First Presbyterian Church, Winter Haven - 637 6th St. NW, Winter Haven, FL

When: Saturday, October 15, 9:00 a.m. until noon

Cost: $15 per participant. Contact us about a group rate for 4 or more people from your church.

Register at www.BrightThreadsMinistries.org

Bright Threads Ministries is a nonprofit based in Polk County which helps church leaders and volunteers weave people of ALL abilities into the beautiful, surprising pattern that God is making with all of us.
