

Our Mission:

To identify and strengthen leaders so that every congregation makes new and mature disciples for Jesus Christ.

Something New

At the suggestion of one of our readers, I'm introducing a new feature: a clickable table of contents for the eNews. This will help you find what you're looking for at a glance (I hope), and help you see what's new easily. In future editions of the eNews this will appear in the main article at the top, or as the first item below it, and new items will be marked as such so that they're harder to miss. Please let me know if this is helpful or not!

Creative Writing as a Spiritual Practice Jan. 30th - Feb. 1st, 2017

Come away from the busyness of your life to experience creative writing as a spiritual practice. When we write creatively, we open ourselves to grow in spiritual practices like attentiveness, intentionality, empathy, and gratitude - gifts we want to grow as disciples of Christ. Challenge yourself creatively and spiritually, and leave with a sense of peace at having drawn closer to yourself and to God.

REV. DR. DEBBIE BRONKEMA, former Co-Executive Director of Cedarkirk, has led several programs and retreats on this topic over the last few years and is excited to share this spiritual practice with us. She currently serves as Pastor of Pleasantville Presbyterian Church in Pleasantville, New York.
